The Urban Pharaohs Festival is the first Egyptian Festival of its kind in Melbourne; we dreamt big! By bringing Egypt to Australia, our aim is to share Egypt's rich culture and history to build a cultural bridge that extends to both expat Egyptians and Australians.

This event was made possible through the generosity and contribution of various people, and the passionate enthusiasm of so many friends and volunteers.

The Urban Pharaohs festival is brought to you with the support of the Egyptian Ministry of Tourism, the Victorian Multicultural Commission, and the Egyptian Consulate-General in Melbourne.

We acknowledge and thank our supporters and sponsors, and hope you will consider supporting them as well.

IEAAV – Urban Pharaohs is a not-for-profit organisation made up of unpaid volunteers who supports diverse culture and arts
